

Studying the Psalms

Name _____ Date _____

This Psalm is divided into three parts. The first part reflects the thoughts of men. The second part reflects the thoughts of God. The third part is the Psalmist's advice on how to not perish.

Verses 1-3

1. Who is plotting a fight? _____
2. Who are they plotting to fight? _____
3. What is their accusation? _____

Verses 4-9

1. Who is laughing in verse 4? _____
2. What is the holy hill in verse 6? _____
3. Who really owns the Earth? _____
4. To whom will He give it? _____
5. How shall He rule once He has it? _____

Verses 10-12

1. Knowing this, how should the kings act? _____
2. Who shall they try to please? _____
3. Who is blessed? _____

Are you for God or against?

Read Matthew 12:30-32

For

There is no middle ground

Against

People who are for God often have the following characteristics.
Which ones do you have?

- I love to pray on my own
- I love the Word of God
- I accept instruction eagerly
- I rejoice when mercy is given to the wicked
- I serve the Lord in my church body
- I help people wherever I go
- People know I love them
- I forgive those who wrong me
- I am patient
- I am kind to animals
- I have control over what I say
- I submit myself to all authority
- I treasure my relationship with Jesus
- I have compassion on those who need help
- I desire to pray when I see injustice
- I desire truth and wisdom and knowledge
- If I'm having a bad day, I pray more
- I love everybody

People who are against God often have the following characteristics.
Which ones do you have?

- I have high self esteem
- I make my own decisions
- I know what's best for me
- I rejoice when justice is paid on the wicked
- I am too busy to volunteer
- I help out when I have free time
- People know why they need me
- If I'm wronged, I pay back hard
- I have a temper
- I look out for number one
- I don't swear unless I'm angry
- I don't like being told what to do
- I try to have a lot of fun
- People need to pull their own weight
- I give money only if I have extra
- I don't care what happens after I die
- If I'm having a bad day, people better leave me alone
- I love me

PRAY - READ - PRAY - ASK - PRAY - LISTEN - PRAY - OBEY - PRAY